Dear Parents,

Last week was another action packed week here, with Y3/4 visiting Haggis Wood, Y6 taking part in a transition workshop with Yo-Yo and Y4/5 working with Archbishop of York Juniors and Riccall Primary in the launch of a project about the old railway line. Also, Esme K and Lily A came second in the York Primary Schools Public Speaking Competition, organised by York Civic Trust. They spoke with confidence and clarity and did very well, as the standard of competitors was very high indeed this year. Time is moving on rapidly and there's lots happening before we break up, so here is the information about this week:

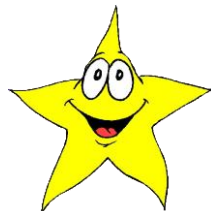

What's on:

All week	We welcome Ben Wragg and Evie Fairley (ex-pupils) on Work Experience with us. We wish them well.
Mon 10 th July	Welcome back to Emile and Luce! Y6 visit Fulford all day York Press visiting to write an article about our SIAMS report
Tues 11 th July	York City Knights Sports Club 3.05pm – 4.15pm 6pm – 7pm 'Back to the Future' evening for staff and governors to look at the past year and set our development ideas for next year
Weds 12 th July	Collective Worship about Malawi with Mike Beresford Y6 visit Fulford in the evening, with parents
Thursday 13 th July	Y6 visiting Crucial Crew event at Askham Bryan College PM.
Fri 14 th July	Non-uniform for Naburn Gala. Bring in a tombola prize of sweets or chocolate, wrapped and in date please.

Celebrations

This week, the certificates went to:

- Alfie in Reception, for completing lots of mini-beast observations to a high standard and for working hard on his spellings. Also, Luke was awarded a certificate for his brilliant teamwork whilst working in the forest
- Bethany in Y1 for always trying her best and being a friendly and caring member of the class
- Florence and Kiera in Y4 for helping to choreograph the class dance for 'Beauty and the Beast'
- Luke and Ethan in Y6 for 100% effort during their practices for 'Beauty and the Beast' and for learning their lines quickly

The lunchtime award went to Luke, Alfie and William in Reception, for tidying the toy cupboard.

William in Reception was given the 'star writing' award for making a super book about sea monsters.

Betsy, Felix and Eli also proudly showed us their football trophies.

Esme H, Finlay and Ben P were also awarded certificates for taking part in the Primary Voice event at the Council offices, where they represented the views of our school and met local councillors and other children from York Schools. Well done!

Parent Governor

Michelle Burgess has been elected as our new Parent Governor. Thankyou to all who voted. We look forward to welcoming Michelle to our next Full Governors meeting in September.

Many thanks, Mrs Christison
