Class Certificates

The Key Stage 1 certificate was awarded to Felix in Year 2 for impressing the teachers with his accurate throwing in PE lessons.

Ms Cordingley's certificate went to Jack Pilmoor for his amazing maths work.

Miss Hodgson gave her certificate to Jack Britton for fantastic maths too – particularly for persevering in his mental maths.

Also, this week, certificates were given to Jessica and Harvey for settling in so well to their new classes and for making friends so quickly.

My 'Trust Award' went to Eli for being super friendly and helpful at Little Angels, especially with some of the Reception children who had never been before.

Friends of Naburn (PTA) News

Tickets for the Ceilidh on 15th October are still available. Buy yours soon!

Also, we are looking for volunteers to become Class Reps. This involves getting to know the other parents in your class and organising anything needed in the year, for example organising a collection for a teacher who is having a baby....!

See anyone on the Committee for more information.

Harvest

Donations will be going to the homeless shelter as usual, so please be generous as we think of those less fortunate than us. A few tins would be great, or a box of goodies....entirely up to you. If your child does bring a box, however, could you please ensure that they bring it into school with them as they arrive on Friday morning and that it is not too heavy to carry, as they will be need to take it over to St. Matthew's Church for a Harvest Practice at 9am!

Our school Harvest Festival will begin at 2.15pm at the church and everyone is welcome. Afterwards, you are welcome to collect your child from school early, but please allow the classes to leave the Church first and make their way back to school, where children can be collected at the gate.

The Naburn Village Harvest Festival will begin in church at 7:30pm on Friday. Some of our children will be performing, so please do come along to support them and to enjoy the service. I have heard rumours that there will be cakes afterwards also!

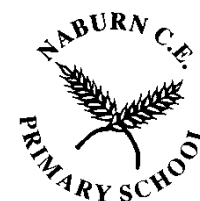

Little Angels

Thankyou to all the children who came to Little Angels last week. We created a splendid Harvest collage which will be on display in church soon. Thanks also to Mrs Pemberton for organising the session and to Mrs Hitchcock for helping.

Here are some photos to show you our hard work.

Many thanks,
Mrs Christison
