Dear Parents,

Thankyou to everyone who donated to the Poppy Appeal last week and to the children in School Council who helped with this. There was a real sense of remembrance in school last week, with children of all ages writing some particularly thought provoking poems and creating some beautiful art work. We will be creating a display in the KS1 doorway, so do pop in to have a look.

Well done also to Willow Class, who were impeccably behaved on our trip to the cinema this morning and walked through town respectfully and calmly. We had fun watching the film too!

Other children who shared their successes with us were:

Jess C for gymnastics and swimming, and Kiera for gymnastics. Well done!

Mathletics - 3 silver and 11 bronze certificates were awarded. I'm expecting some golds next!

House Points – Bears and Pandas were joint winners last week. I wonder who it will be next.

Friends of Naburn

There will be a meeting at 6.30pm on Tuesday. Please come along to support us. The Friends will also be having a stall at Naburn Gala on 24th November so please bring in chocolate or sweets this Friday, to enable them to have time to put tombola stickers on.

YorNight

This free event will take place between 3pm and 8pm on Saturday 17th November at King's Manor and the Yorkshire Museum and promises to be a fun packed day with talks, activities, games and competitions linked to Science. Please see the following link for more details.

Jazz Hands

A musical theatre group in York, Jazz Hands, is an expanding company and are considering new venues. They are keen to run a class in Naburn Village Hall, but there is a requirement for a minimum of 12 children per class (with classes for 5-7yrs and 8-11yrs). If any parents are interested please could they email info@jazzhandsyork.com with their child's name and age, to let them know they might be interested in attending classes in Naburn, so they can see if there's a genuine demand. Please see the following link for further information:

Good luck to Y5/6!

Our oldest children will be performing in the Yorkshire Schools Dance Festival on Sunday. They have been working very hard towards this and it has been lovely to watch them shine as they have grown in confidence. I wish them well for their performance.

NPSCC

As part of our Anti-Bullying focus, we have invited the NSPCC to visit and lead an assembly and a workshop for Y5/6 on Thursday 22nd November. For more details please see the letter attached.

Shoe Boxes

This year, the children in School Council have been publicising the shoe box appeal, with Mrs Pemberton's help. If you would like to fill a shoe box, the deadline is Thursday and a label was sent home last week to put on the front. A donation of £5 is asked for, inside an envelope in the box or donate online. Please see the following link for ideas and further information:

Many thanks,
