

Resource 1

Look at the resource below, which shares examples of public speakers.

Public speaking is a talk that is given to an audience.

Would you enjoy speaking to an audience?

People speak in public for many different reasons. You can find some examples below. Can you think of any other people who might be public speakers?

A race director (the person in charge of a race)

A university lecturer

A politician

A member of the royal family

