Dear Parents,

Headteacher's Introduction

As we draw an end to another incredibly busy term, I want to reflect on all the amazing things we have done this term! We started the term with launching our new vision and values of Aspiration, Respect and Community, where the children had opportunity to reflect on how the values impact their lives. These values underpin everything we do at Naburn.

We celebrated with a wonderful Easter Service on Thursday. Thank you all for coming – our children were amazing (as always!) and it was great for them to showcase their learning.

We made two permanent appointments to join our wonderful team! We are very excited to welcome Mrs Uttley as Yr 3/4 teacher and KS2 HLTA. She is incredibly experienced and has already built a wonderful rapport with our children. We also welcome Robyn Davies to the Acorn team. Robyn has keen interest in forest school activities and comes from a background in education too.

Hope you all have a wonderful Easter break. Mrs Durham

It's so Egg-citing!

What another wonderful but very busy week.

As part of the start of our Easter celebrations, Acorn Class took part in a variety of Easter themed activities including an egg and spoon race and pass the egg. Where they were all 'Egg-ceptional!

Waiting for the train to arrive.

After making their own train Acorn's went on a wonderful adventure. Let's hope the sunshine reappears soon!

Acorn Class did an amazing job on Tuesday afternoon rehearsing for the Easter Service at St Matthew's Church. They sang beautifully.

We have also had an electrifying time in Science this week, making circuits with buzzers, batteries and bulbs and experimenting to see what happens when we alter the number of components.

Do ask us what we discovered!

We are each in the process of choosing one of Henry VIII's six wives to research over the Easter holidays, ready to write a fact-filled biography next term. Do you know which of his wives was rudely known as The Flanders Mare – and why?
